MLA8

One standard citation format that applies to every source type. MLA8 was designed to simplify the process of citing sources. It requires that every source type follow the same format. This means that books, websites, periodicals, videos, photographs, and all other types of sources now use the same standard format.

MLA8 requires researchers to locate the same core elements from their sources and place them in a standard order in order to create a citation.

One major difference with MLA8 is the use of containers in citations. Containers are the elements that “hold” the source. For example, if a television episode is watched on Hulu, Hulu is the container. Both the title of the source and its container would be included in the citation.

Core Elements of an MLA8 citation including the following:

1. Authors.
2. Title of the source.
3. Title of container,
4. Other contributors,
5. Version,
6. Numbers,
7. Publisher,
8. Publication date,
9. Location.

The appropriate punctuation mark will follow each core element, unless it is the final piece. In this case, the punctuation mark would be a period.

EXAMPLES:

Lawless, Robert E. The Student’s Guide to Financial Literacy.

ABC-CLIO, LLC, 2010.

INFOhio Databases

All INFOhio databases have a citation option. Once results are located from each database you can utilize the cite option in the tool box (generally on the right hand side). It will automatically create the citation for you. Simply select MLA format if it is not the default. Remember this is a rough draft of a citation. Be sure to double check the results.

CITATION GUIDE

A works cited list provides full bibliographic information for every source cited in your text. The following guidelines have been taken from A Guide to MLA Style, W. W. Norton, 2016 Update, and A Complete Guide to MLA 8, Easy Bib, a Chegg service, 2016.

- Begin the Works Cited list on a new page at the end of the paper.
- Number the page as a continuation of the text.
- Start your list with the title Works Cited, centered one inch from the top.
- Double-space the entire Works Cited list.
- Begin each entry at the left margin.
- Indent subsequent lines one-half inch (or five spaces).
- Alphabetize the list by authors’ last names (or by editors’ or translators’ names, if appropriate).
- Alphabetize works with no author or editor by title, disregarding A, An, or The.
- Sources beginning with numerals are alphabetized as if the number were spelled out.
